EDITORIAL FLINGS

A Kentucky judge says it's practically impossible for the poor to get justice in the courts nowadays. Well, the rich refuse to take it, so where does it all go?

The news that Princess Mary's wedding cake weighed 560 pounds may mean that the bride-to-be, as inexperienced in cooking, as are most brides-to-be, insisted on making the cake.

The wooden horse of Troy was known to fame, my boy, but many track attendants are constantly in debt because too oft they bet on one of its descendants.

The discovery of The Save-a-Life-League that seventy-six American millionaires committed suicide within the calendar year of 1921, shows one of the effects of the income tax laws with its baffling exactions.

It is said that the Lord has created nothing in vain, but when we consider George Harvey and Tom Watson, and some of the funny trousers-wearing bipeds who infest Paris, (Ky.), we are constrained to say, "The ways of the Lord are inscrutable and past finding out."

Last week was "National Smile Week." Let us hope that many who participated then tucked their smiles away on the inside of the heart, even though they refuse to wear them now where smiles ought to be worn.

The battleship Oregon is going to be preserved as a historical memorial. We'd better go slow on this sort of thing or we may find that Japan, England, France and Italy also have some battleships which are "historical memorials," and therefore exempt from being scrapped.

Addressing the Lion's Club in Louisville a Louisville attorney suggested that the Constitution of Kentucky be amended to provide for a six-months' session of the General Assembly every six years. Possibly a better plan would be a six-days' session every sixty years.

Quite recently one of the teachers in the Paris City School told her pupils they would be required to write an essay on the subject of "Geese." Many of the replies turned in were "simply great," but she says the one that convulsed the whole room was this one:

"Geese is a low, heavy-set bird composed mostly of meat and feathers. His head sets on one end and he sets on the other. A geese can't sing much on account of the dampness of the moisture. There ain't no between to his toes, and he carries a toy balloon on his stomach to keep him from sinking. Some geese when they get big are called ganders and have curls to their tails. Ganders don't have to set and hatch, but they just loaf and go swimming and eat. If I was a goose I would rather be a gander."

The recession of automobile prices is much more marked than the slump in laundry prices in many Kentucky cities, and the result is going to be a celluloid collar and an automobile under one ownership in many Kentucky homes.

One thing that can be said about the Kentucky Senate is that it has defeated most of the good bills passed by the House, and if it has anything worth while to its own credit we do not know what it is.

THE NEWS does not reach from Dan to Beersheba, but is does extend to the outermost confines of the limits of Bourbon as bounded by Scott, Fayette, Clark, Nicholas, Montgomery and Bath, and then some. So if you want to get business from that territory THE NEWS can get it for you.

Down in Georgia a fellow rode twelve miles to "beat up" a telephone operator because he couldn't get a number. Up here in Kentucky a lot of folks appreciate the Georgian's frame of mind, but they generally find relief in words instead of taking such a long ride.

DYE ANY GARMENT OR OLD DRAPERY IN DIAMOND DYES

Buy "Diamond Dyes" and follow the simple directions in every package. Don't wonder whether you can dye or tint successfully, because no medyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Worn, faded dress, skirts, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything, become like new again. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run. (adv)

Hawaii, area fifty-six square miles, contains three volcanoes and a lake of blazing lava.

Arkansas Philosophy.
Some people seem to think that the soil weevils, hoboos, bums, tramps and old bachelors are a nuisance to any community. Please remember that the Bible says all things work together for good.—Nevada County Playmate.
